

CANBIO BIOENERGY WORKSHOP

Greenhouse Heating with Bioenergy

Long-term Solutions to Escalating Energy Costs

A workshop on opportunities to heat farms & greenhouses with biomass fuels and automated bioenergy systems

Truro, Nova Scotia – Friday December 8, 2006

CONTENTS OF CD

“Biomass: All you ever wanted to know but were afraid to ask”

- Jim Richardson, Task Leader, International Energy Agency Task 31
- Bioenergy from Conventional Forestry

“Biomass Fuels and Production in Nova Scotia”

- Jim Verboom, VerBoom Grinders Ltd., Truro, NS

“Factors for Success in Small Commercial Biomass Systems”

- Bruce McCallum, President of CANBIO
- Woodlot owner & chip burner owner and bioenergy consultant (20 years)

“Biomass Energy Systems for the Greenhouse Industry”

- Eric Rosen, President, KMW Energy Inc.
- Manufacturer (25 years) of industrial scale woodchip & hog fuel systems

“Small Commercial Biomass Systems for Farm and Greenhouse Applications”

- Bruce McCallum, President of CANBIO
- Woodlot owner & chip burner owner

List of Participants

CD Order Form

CANBIO Truro 2006 Workshop Proceedings CD $ 53.00 (incl. GST)

Name:.....

Affiliation:.....

Address:.....

E-mail:.....

Payment can be made by VISA/MC/Amex or by cheque or money order, payable to the Canadian Bioenergy Association, and mailed to: CANBIO, 1769 St. Laurent Blvd., Suite 318, Ottawa, ON K1G 5X7, or by FAX to 613-521-1997

Credit Card Number :..... Expiry Date :.....

Name on Card :..... Signature :.....